

W. J. BRYAN IN ANGEL CITY TODAY

Commoner Opens Democratic Campaign For Wilson in California

MAKES THREE SPEECHES IN LOS ANGELES TODAY

Gov. Wilson Will Find Muddle
in New York Democratic Ranks on Reaching Home

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 23.—William Jennings Bryan arrived here at 7 o'clock this morning to open Woodrow Wilson's California campaign for the presidency. On his arrival he said: "We are gaining rapidly in the Western states. We will split the Republican party about half and half in most of the states. The Democrats are united everywhere."

Bryan opened the Democratic campaign in California today by speaking to a gathering of five thousand women voters in the Temple Auditorium. He said:

"I wish to draw a contrast between the Chicago and Baltimore conventions. Roosevelt says both conventions were controlled by Wall Street. He knows better. Wall Street controlled the Republican convention but it failed at Baltimore. The interests behind Taft are the same which were appreciated by Roosevelt in times past."

Bryan was also scheduled for a speech to workmen and to address a general audience at Fiesta Park this afternoon.

DEMOCRATIC SPLIT IS THREATENED IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Woodrow Wilson will be confronted in New York by a serious situation when he returns from his Western trip. Anti-Tammany men from up-state declare that Tammany will control the state convention and will defeat Progressive Democracy. Progressive Democrats will probably demand that Wilson shall interfere, and secure an open convention at Syracuse next Monday. They declare that if the New Jersey does not declare for a progressive ticket, they will put a ticket of their own in the field.

Wilson Will Interfere
NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—A flat declaration that Governor Wilson would interfere if the Democrats attempt to renominate Governor Dix was made today by Democratic leaders.

"I want to be President," declared Wilson, "but I do not want office badly enough to gain it at the expense of certain principles."

COMPLICATIONS ARE THREATENED

Warning Note From U. S. Ambassador Wilson to Madero
May Provoke Protest

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 23.—A delayed note of warning from Ambassador Wilson to President Madero threatens complications between the United States and Mexico today. The man was released before the note was received, and now President Madero is preparing to protest the ambassador's action.

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 23.—Union leaders declare today that any attempt to use strikebreakers at the Bingham mines will be followed by a general strike of miners throughout Arizona, New Mexico, Montana and Nevada. Sheriff's deputies today found a box of dynamite near the Markham bridge. The unionists claim the dynamite was "planted" to discredit the strikers. F. August Heinze, the "Copper King," today took personal charge of the strike situation.

BOY INJURED BY AUTO FOURTH AND MAIN

To Avoid Others, Automobilist
Cut Corner and John Cozad
Was Knocked Down

INTERNAL PAINS INDICATE INJURIES

No Bones Broken—Many Say
Crossing Officer Needed
Daily

John Cozad, aged 13, son of Charles Cozad of 618 East First street, was run over by an automobile driven by Mrs. Ed. Ward of Orange. The accident occurred at the corner of Fourth and Main streets this morning about 11 o'clock. When the automobile stopped the rear wheel was on the boy's chest. The automobile was shoved off, and the boy taken to Dr. Wehrly's office, where it was found that no bones were broken but that the boy was suffering internal pain. Just how serious his injuries are cannot be told until time enough elapses to tell whether or not there is serious internal injury.

John was riding rapidly south on Main street, on the right side of the street. Mrs. Ward, accompanied by another woman, was in an automobile turning off West Fourth street north onto Main street. Mrs. Ward stated that she cut the corner in order to avoid two women who were walking across the street, and to avoid a boy who came from the north.

This boy was followed by another boy, John Cozad, both coming out from behind a wagon filled with straw. Mrs. Ward says she was thus compelled to take the left side of the street. John Cozad says he tried to keep from striking the automobile but it was too close and he was going too fast for a quick stop. The boy and the bicycle went down and under the automobile. The bicycle was smashed. Mrs. Ward brought the automobile to a quick stop. By-standers, among whom were E. W. Smalley and P. B. Glover, rushed to the aid of the boy. One wheel of the machine was on the boy's chest. After getting up the boy collapsed.

After being taken to the physician's office, the boy was taken to his home. Mrs. Ward assisted in every way possible.

This accident has given impetus to the talk that there ought to be a crossings officer at Fourth and Main every day of the week as well as on Saturday and Sunday afternoons. Had there been a crossings officer on duty this morning the accident undoubtedly would not have occurred.

VACATION IS HARD ON TAFT

Keeps Busy—Lieutenants in Campaign Growing Most Optimistic

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—President Taft today opened the Hygiene Congress, and conferred later with a committee of fourth class postmasters from the convention at Richmond, Va. At 2:30, Taft received delegates to the Catholic Charities convention and tonight will address a gathering of negroes, attending a celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of emancipation. The President's vacation is proving one of strenuous endeavor.

Keating Is Optimistic

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Joseph Keating, in charge of the Taft headquarters in Chicago, telegraphed Chairman Hill, national committee-man, today that the prospects for Taft carrying Michigan, Indiana, Wisconsin, Illinois and Minnesota, were better than ever.

And So Is Charles Hill

DETROIT, Sept. 23.—Charles D. Hill, chairman of the Republican national committee, arrived here this afternoon. He seeks to have the state Republican conventions give endorsement to President Taft tomorrow. Hill asserts that sentiment in favor of Taft is increasing hourly.

Churches Against Home Rule

BELFAST, Sept. 23.—Services in all the Protestant churches in Ulster yesterday were aimed specially against home rule. There were intercessional prayers for the preservation of Ulster from the home rule danger. The preachers in their sermons made a feature of the covenant to be signed by Ulstermen at the coming great meeting.

ULM AND BURKE OFFICERS OF COMMITTEE

Taft Republicans Pass Resolutions Endorsing Taft and His Administration

RESOLUTIONS WERE LENGTHY DOCUMENT

Recommended That Central Committee Bring Out New Legislative Candidates

The Taft Republicans finished their convention Saturday afternoon by electing a county central committee, which organized by electing N. A. Ulm chairman and J. C. Burke secretary.

The report of the proceedings of the convention given by the Register Saturday closed with the beginning of the address of Capt. Simons of Pasadena, who flayed Roosevelt and praised Taft. He attacked the Johnson forces of California.

After his speech came the reports of committees. W. W. Wilson of Newport Beach and W. O. Hart of Orange, temporary chairman and temporary secretary, were made permanent officers of the convention by the report of the committee of permanent organization and order of business, presented by R. D. Richards of Bay City. The credentials committee's report was read by J. S. Howard of Anaheim.

Taft Endorsement
Then came the report of the resolutions committee, read by L. L. Shaw of Santa Ana. It was a lengthy document, the principal feature of which was an endorsement of President Taft and his administration.

Since the resolutions would occupy nearly four columns of space, the following resume is published.

The administration of President Taft is declared to be "wise, patient and loyal," and from it came prosperity. A certain political faction claiming that Republicans have now severed their connection with the Republican party, and in state and county have gone over to another party, and in Orange county, through a "totally inadequate primary law," a so-called Republican convention was held that pledged itself to the support of an opposing ticket.

This prelude came to an endorsement of Taft and a condemnation of "the criminal desecration of Populist graveyards and Socialist morgues, which have been peacefully reposing in ashes for twenty years, in the construction of so-called Progressive platforms."

An enumeration of measures sustained by the Taft administration was followed by a denunciation of the "new third party" in its endeavor to appropriate the column for Republican electors. It is declared that the present shipload election laws of California are no excuse for such an act.

Then came these paragraphs: "Resolved, That we spurn any overtures for placing the Republican electors on the ballot by petition, and demand that they shall be placed there in the manner to which their party's standing for over half a century entitles them, or not at all. On this principle we stand ready for the conflict, and shall not surrender one iota of our rights as Republicans."

"Resolved, That we condemn the attempt of any other party than that which stands for the national Republican platform, and the Republican candidate for President, to masquerade under our party's name. The lines are now clearly drawn. There is no overlapping of issues or candidates. We, as Republicans, are proud to stand with our party, and have no desire to shield ourselves under the cloak of any other name. The supporters of all other parties, if they are sincere, can only pursue the same course."

"Resolved, That we condemn the efforts of the 'Bull Moose' party to draw any support on the issue of a protective tariff, inasmuch as every member of Congress who is supporting that party voted with the Democrats for free sugar, which action would have ruined the chief industry of Orange county had it not been for the magnificent loyalty of President Taft and the senators who are in harmony with him. And we warn the people of Orange county to be not deceived on this vital issue, for which the Republican party alone stands straightforward and square-toed."

A policy of revision of the tariff downward was denounced, and it was declared "we are in favor of legitimate and equitable revision of the tariff so far as can be done without impairing the specific policy of protection."

"We condemn with the bitterest scorn the vile and cowardly conspiracy of the Muckraking Magazine Trust of this country." The magazine's attacks upon Taft are alleged to be due to the fact that he has fathered a just readjustment of rates.

ROOSEVELT IN KANSAS AND MISSOURI TODAY

Wants People to Have Hand in Game-
Gave 'First Aid to Injured'--Grosscup
For T. R.--List of Electors

PITTSBURG, Kas., Sept. 23.—"First aid to the injured" was rendered by Colonel Roosevelt today to a woman who fainted during his speech. The Colonel loosened her collar, called for water and brought the woman back to consciousness.

Colonel Roosevelt said in the course of his address: "We stand on the principle that Americanisms are questions of conviction not birthplace. I do not intend that people shall sit in the bleachers and watch the game between two professional teams. It is high time for the people to participate."

Had Sunday Rest

PITTSBURG, Kas., Sept. 23.—Colonel Roosevelt today, refreshed by a Sunday's rest at the home of Editor William Allen White, commenced a strenuous campaign along the Kansas-Missouri line, which winds up tonight with a speech at Joplin, Mo., on the tariff.

FORMER JUDGE GROSSCUP COMES OUT FOR ROOSEVELT

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—Peter S. Grosscup, former federal judge, deserted the ranks of the regular Republicans today and came out for Colonel Roosevelt. He declared his sentiments as follows: "When I left the bench I said the coming campaign would be the last fought along the old lines; instead of that, it is the first to be fought."

GREAT WASTE OF HUMAN LIFE FROM UNSANITARY MODES

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 23.—That there is a waste of fifteen years in the average human life in this country, owing to unsanitary modes of living, and that this waste can be prevented, thus to all practical purposes adding fifteen years to human life, is one of the announcements which will be made by Prof. Irving Fisher of Yale, at the National Conservation Congress in Indianapolis, October 1.

Prof. Fisher is the vice president of the new organization for public hygiene, which is already at work in New York.

MACDONALD'S LAWYER MAKES A CLAIM FOR HEAVY DAMAGES BECAUSE OF TELEGRAM'S DELAY

A special agent of the Western Union Telegraph Company was in Santa Ana today making an investigation into a claim put in against the company by Attorney Epstein of San Francisco for R. C. Macdonald, who is in jail here awaiting a second trial on a felony charge that grew out of his relations with one of his pupils.

It seems that on August 10 a brother of Macdonald telegraphed Macdonald $200 from Vancouver, B. C. At that time Macdonald's trial was set for August 12. The telegram did not reach here until August 14, but in the meantime the trial had been continued to August 19, on which day it began. The jury in the case disagreed, seven standing for conviction and five for acquittal.

Attorney Epstein of San Francisco was one of the attorneys who defended Macdonald. After the trial he put in rather an unusual claim, asking for heavy damages. The claim made was that because of the delay caused by the failure of the telegram to come along new lines. The Progressive party is the only one in my judgment offering the needed new political clothes."

GOV. JOHNSON OFF FOR NEW ENGLAND CAMPAIGN

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Governor Johnson left today to campaign New England. He said the sentiment for Roosevelt is growing hourly, and he predicted a victory for the Progressives.

Progressive Electors

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 23.—The Progressive presidential electors were announced today as follows: A. J. Wallace, Florence Collins Porter, Marshall Stimson of Los Angeles; Charles S. Wheeler, Philip Bancroft, John M. McLoughlin, San Francisco; Geo. C. Pardee, Oakland; R. C. Fernald, Santa Barbara; Frank B. Devlin, Vallejo; Ross Bull, Arcata; M. B. Harris, Fresno; J. W. Finney, Downeyville; M. A. Luce, San Diego.

WHO WILL COMPRISE STATE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 23.—According to figures compiled today in the office of Secretary of State Jordan, the Republican convention tomorrow will comprise nominees for all eighty assembly districts and twenty senatorial districts in which elections will take place this year, besides fourteen hold-over senators—114 delegates in all.

CHURCH DELEGATES TURN FIRE FIGHTERS

OXNARD, Sept. 23.—One hundred people attending special service at the Christian church today turned fire fighters when a big hay warehouse of the Southern Pacific Milling Company burned. They saved the church.

31 PAROLES GRANTED AT FOLSOM—37 ARE REFUSED

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 23.—Thirty-one paroles were granted prisoners in Folsom today by the Board of Prison Directors. Thirty-seven petitions for parole were refused and three held for later action.

through, the defense did not have the money needed to look up some evidence in Macdonald's favor and that because the evidence was not looked up the jury disagreed instead of bringing in a verdict of acquittal and that therefore Macdonald is still in jail and must be tried again.

The Western Union representative who was here today copied court records to show that Macdonald had attorneys to represent him in all proceedings. Had the money arrived on August 10 and the trial been begun on August 12, the defense would have had but two days in which to use the $200 for investigation. As it was the money arrived on August 14 and the trial began August 19, which actually gave the defense five days to look up the alleged evidence. These were some of the facts gained by the Western Union man who was here today. So far as could be learned, the investigation here unearthed nothing that would convince the Western Union that the claim or any part of it ought to be paid.

50,000 CHILDREN DIE YEARLY FROM DREAD TUBERCULOSIS

About $75,000,000 is the annual financial loss from children who die each year from tuberculosis, according to a statement made today before the congress by Dr. S. A. Knopf, of New York.

"Fifty thousand children die annually from tuberculosis," said Dr. Knopf. "Their average age is 7 1/2 years and, figuring the cost to their parents and the community at only $250 per annum, the financial loss represented is $75,000,000. They have died, too, before they were able to give any return to their parents or the community. All this useless sacrifice of money and life is because we do not take care of the child at the right time. Three per cent of all children of school age are tubercular. There are 20,000,000 children attending school, and therefore must be at least 600,000 children in need of open-air instruction."

EVANS GAINS GROUND IN SAN DIEGO COUNTY

(Special to the Register.)

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 23.—After a quiet rest yesterday, S. C. Evans, the Republican nominee for congress from this district, started this morning on another strenuous week's work. He will speak tonight to the Little Landers' Colony at San Ysidro. In the short time that he has been in this county since the primary he has made it impossible for the standpat crowd to force the county Progressives into line for a Democrat for the sole reason that the Democrat is a San Diegan.

Progressive leaders all over the city and county are flocking to the Evans Standard and they claim that the Spreckels whip will not be able to force a majority of the city votes into line for a Democrat, let alone the outside county where Evans is very strong. Every meeting he holds is crowded with eager people who are doing all in their power to assist him. In Lakeside, El Cajon and Chula Vista, where he spoke last week, he was assured that he would be given an even larger majority than he received in the primary.

"In all of the country communities of the district," said Judge J. H. Mc-

Culloch, who presided at the Chula Vista meeting, "it behooves the men and women to stand together and fight for Mr. Evans."

Attorney Edgar Luce, one of the Progressive leaders of San Diego and Governor Johnson's right hand man in this part of the state, characterized the "bark barrel" or "bring home the bacon" policy of the San Diego Republicans, who are supporting a Democrat simply because he is a San Diegan, as nothing more nor less than bribery.

Evans has planned to hold a meeting in Germania Hall of this city either Thursday or Friday night of this week. Every other night of the week he will hold meetings in the outlying towns. He works all of the time and has the happy faculty of getting others to work too.

San Diego County Progressive Republicans will vote solid for Evans and many of the old standpat crowd, who supported Kirby at the primary, are beginning to see that this county cannot line up against the rest of the southern counties and win in the long run.

TO CONSERVE HUMAN LIFE

32 Leading Governments of World Send Delegates to Hygiene Congress

WORLD'S HEALTH EXPERTS TO CONTRIBUTE WISDOM

Attendance of 5000 Health
Officials From the United States Expected

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23.—With thirty-two leading governments and forty-eight states pouring their wealth of knowledge to improve public welfare and to prolong human life into one common fund for the world's use, the Fifteenth International Congress on Hygiene and Demography opened its week's session here this morning. Four hundred and fifty of the foremost sanitary authorities in the world in formal addresses will contribute the latest discoveries and methods in their respective countries in the realm of adding comfort and years to human life. It is expected that the attendance at the nine sections into which the congress is divided will number five thousand including many of the national, state and city health officials of this country.

While the object of the congress is to extend the knowledge and improve the practice of hygiene and public health in all the countries which participate, it is believed these benefits will accrue in largest measure to the country which is for the time being the host of the congress. That the state and municipal public health officials of this country attending the congress will have support outside of immediate sanitary circles in seeking to put into effect various health reforms that will be suggested by the congress is indicated by the action of large business enterprises in being represented at the proceedings. Among these is the Association of Life Insurance Presidents, which is represented by its general counsel, R. L. Cox of New York and by its health committee.

The congress will deal with the control of contagious diseases, including typhoid fever, diphtheria, cerebrospinal meningitis, tuberculosis, etc.; with the sanitary aspects of public water supplies, including the sanitary control of watersheds, the purification of water by storage, water purification in Europe by biological methods; water sterilization by chemical methods and with the disposal of sewage and wastes by the various processes now carried on in the European countries. It has been contended for some time by Prof. Irving Fisher of Yale University that the practical application of all the reforms now known to modern hygiene would add fifteen years to the span of life in the United States.

50,000 CHILDREN DIE YEARLY FROM DREAD TUBERCULOSIS

About $75,000,000 is the annual financial loss from children who die each year from tuberculosis, according to a statement made today before the congress by Dr. S. A. Knopf, of New York.

CALIFORNIA WOMEN TRAIN GUNS ON HIGHWAYMEN

WOODLAND, Cal., Sept. 23.—Three highwaymen who attempted to hold up the town of Plainfield, four miles from here, were surrounded by a posse. When Sheriff Monroe arrived on the scene, the bandits stood in the middle of the road with the guns of Mrs. Anna Stanley and Mrs. James Parinton trained on them. They surrendered.

RUN OVER BY WAGON KILLED

Three-Year-Old Son of West
Anaheim Man Crushed by Beet Wagon Wheel

Frank Raymond Holder, the 3-year-old son of David Holder of West Anaheim, was instantly killed Saturday afternoon at Cypress when he fell from a sugar-beet wagon and his head was run over by a wheel of the wagon. The little boy was riding on the wagon with his father, a beet grower, who was taking a load of sugar beets to the dump at Cypress. The boy threw himself forward and accidentally fell and before the horses could be stopped the wheel of the wagon had passed over the boy's head and one shoulder, crushing both head and shoulder in a frightful manner. Coroner Wimbler held an inquest yesterday afternoon.

Mackerel Biting
Newport News: Mackerel of the "corn-fed" variety have been biting at the end of the S. P. wharf every morning this week. Some of the mackerel weigh as high as four pounds and furnish the most exciting sport of any fish ever caught from the wharf with the exception of yellow-tail. Many poles have been broken on the big mackerel as they leave the water very unwillingly. The big fish have been biting well before sunrise and life has started in anew for such former wharf heroes as Charley Barton, Dave Winans, George Miller, Lew Smith, C. S. Forgy, Johnny Lumberger and Hugh McMillan.

AUCTION SALES BY RANCHERS

Farmers Quitting San Joaquin to Sell Their Stock and Implements

Seven or eight ranchers who have been engaged in raising beans on the San Joaquin ranch this year, have decided to quit farming on the San Joaquin. Their places will be taken by others. The reason for the withdrawal of the ranchers who have quit is that the Irvine Co. has raised the rental from one-fourth of the crop to one-third of the crop.

As the result of the changes, a number of auctions are scheduled to be held on the San Joaquin. The ranchers who will leave, in some instances are selling off all the farm stock and implements that they have been using in their business.

On Saturday, Sept. 28, W. J. Kelly is to have an auction at his lease two and a half miles north of Irvine station. Kelly is going to auction twelve head of work horses and mules, a list of farm implements and household furniture.

On Monday, Sept. 30, M. Wooley is to hold an auction at his place a mile east of Irvine station. Both sales are to be held at 10 a.m.

A dose or two on a few occasions when I have noticed pain in my back has sufficed to relieve the trouble. My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills as expressed in a public testimonial I gave two and a half years ago remains unchanged, as I value them as highly as ever. I was subject to attacks of kidney complaint for months and if I brought any strain on my back, I was sure to suffer from backache. Knowing that this misery was due to disordered kidneys, I finally used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Dean's Drug Store (now Wheeler & Mateer's Drug Store). They went directly to the seat of the complaint and I could not have asked for greater benefit."

BIG DAY FOR THE BAPTISTS

Cornerstone Laid For New Church at Fullerton—Rev.
Russell Takes Part

FULLERTON, Sept. 23.—Yesterday was a big day for the Baptist people of Fullerton. The cornerstone-laying service was held at 3 p. m., the programme being as follows: Doxology, congregation; invocation; Pastor Whiteside's selection, choir; historical address, Rev. H. Bailey of Los Angeles; solo, Jesse Martin; address, Rev. Otto Russell; placing of stone, Pastor Whiteside; hymn and benediction. There was a large attendance. The building, which is to be completed by Thanksgiving day, will be one of the finest in the county, costing about $20,000. It will have a seating capacity of 800. The Baptist Church was organized here in 1894 with a membership of only about twelve and today it has 240 active members. The church also owns a neat parsonage worth over $2000.

Evangelist John T. Stivers and Carol M. Ridenour, as singers, have commenced a series of revival meetings at the Christian church. The services are well attended and will probably continue for several weeks. Special music has been arranged for. The Placentia schools have reopened with an enrollment of 176, which is a good increase over that of last year. Mrs. Dr. George Bryan gave a birthday party the past week in honor of the birthday of Master George, Jr. A number of young folks were present and enjoyed the afternoon and a dinner at the Bryan home on West Commonwealth avenue.

G. J. Johnson, proprietor of the Johnson cigar factories of Detroit, Mich., has purchased property in Placentia.

S. R. McClay of the Citrus Belt Land Company, owners of the Riverside Heights properties at Corona, was here on business yesterday.

GARDEN GROVE NEWS BUDGET

GARDEN GROVE, Sept. 23.—Henry Otta who has recently sold his home, has bought ten acres of Harvey Newcome. The place is just east of Mr. Dunn's ten acre home. Mr. Otta expects to improve the place for a home and says the place is not for sale.

Bruce Anson has purchased two acres in the Cook addition to Garden Grove, and will commence the erection of a new six room modern residence at once.

The quarterly conference of the San Diego district of the M. E. church was held in Garden Grove on Thursday evening. Reports show the church and Sunday school in a growing condition. A resolution was passed asking to have the present pastor, Dr. Ashleigh, returned to this place, where he has been for the past seven years, which in itself is highly commendatory of Dr. Ashleigh's work.

F. Nives has bought the barber shop of L. A. Bon Durant, and will take possession next week. Mrs. Nives is also a barber and will assist Mr. Nives in his work.

The work on Miss Carrie M. Kimball's new house is progressing very rapidly.

Tent meetings conducted by the Jeonnonite Brethren in Christ will begin tonight, the tent is located on Euclid avenue, just south of Mr. McDonald's blacksmith shop.

J. T. McElree is starting a circulating library in a novel way, after purchase membership with a small fee. The public is invited to look over his list of books. Garden Grove needs a library and every one should avail themselves of this splendid way of getting the best books in your homes.

Christen Bros., cement contractors, who have their yards located 2 1/2 miles northwest of town, is a very busy place, having on hand several large contracts for cement pipe. They are also making up extra pipe to have on hand when the more busy season is on.

G. E. Gleason has sold his grocery business and stock to H. A. Bon Durant and E. A. Preston, who will take possession on about Oct. 1st. Both of the new firms are well known here. Mr. Gleason will go to Hollingham, Wash., where he will remain for the winter taking a much needed vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Penfold are at Newport Beach for a month.

Mr. P. N. Wiggins of Carthage, Mo., was a business visitor at Garden Grove Friday.

Mrs. Carner and daughter Genevieve returned yesterday from a trip to the northern part of the state, where they have been visiting relatives.

Mrs. A. Carmichael of Lamoin, Iowa, who is here visiting her sister, Mrs. N. Carmichael, has gone to Los Angeles to spend a few days with relatives and friends. She expects to start for her home about Oct. 1st.

The Men Who Succeed
as heads of large enterprises are men of great energy. Success, today, demands health. To all is to fail. It's utter folly for a man to endure a weak, run-down, half alive condition when Electric Bitters will put him right on his feet in short order. "Four bottles did me more real good than any other medicine I ever took," writes Chas. B. Allen, Sylvania, Ga. "After years of suffering with rheumatism, liver trouble, stomach disorders and deranged kidneys. I am again, thanks to Electric Bitters, sound and well." Try them. Only 50 cents at all druggists.

Pictures of Far North Wonderful Exhibition

Saturday night for the first time in that city the wonderful motion pictures taken of animals and humans on the Alaska-Siberia coasts were shown. They will be shown tonight and tomorrow night at the Grand Opera House.

When one has seen those pictures he has received the benefits that would be derived from a course of lectures in the geography and life of the Behring Sea section. Preconceived ideas are upset in some instances, and more often information is given that has not come to the knowledge of many who have lived their lives in the United States.

The expedition went North a year ago this summer for the purpose of gathering exhibits for the Smithsonian Institute. Polar bear, birds, goats, seal and walrus were among the animals taken by the hunters.

Moving picture men accompanied the expedition and among the pictures taken are those first shown here Saturday night.

The pictures are out of the usual. Great rocks covered with birds were shown, and the polar bear who was on the stage gave explanations that added interest to the movements pictured on the screen.

Icebergs, Esquimaux villages, street scenes and amusements of Esquimaux, seals at play, a diving polar bear chased through the water by the vessel, pictures taken at close range of various animals of the North—these and scores of other matters of interest might be brought out.

The closing reel shows the mother love of the polar bear. A mother bear and one of her young are chased by the vessel. The little bear is roped, and the frantic fight put up by the mother aroused the sympathy of the men of the exhibition, and instead of carrying out their plans of capture the little bear is turned loose and he and his mother are shown making for the ice-fields.

negro Sunday schools, numerous fraternal orders and benevolent associations participated in the merry-making which lasted from noon until midnight. It is estimated that 15,000 negroes visited the park.

NOT ALWAYS A FAILURE

Chester Rowell, the editor of the Fresno Republican, says that the recent escape of a boy prisoner of 19 years from the Folsom prison farm, after having been a model prisoner for a year and a half and having been made a trusty, should not be taken as an example of the failure of the more humane method of treating convicts now in vogue, nor should the many other instances of the failure of the individual treatment of convicts be considered as disapproving its value.

There is no need of being too optimistic about any method of treating criminals and then lamenting because it fails to work. Just as there is, scientifically, no such thing as a human thing as forgiveness for sin, so, on the other hand, the need of humanitarian treatment does not depend upon immediate response to it on the part of every crook and wrong-doer upon whom the experiment may be made. The stains of sin, of vice, and crime go deeper than the surface. The creditable results which for the most part have followed from the use of the parole system and prison reform, simply teach us that human judgments cannot decide just to what extent justice should be tempered with mercy and how far experimentation will bring out the good rather than the evil qualities in men whom society has found it advisable to detain as wards of the state.

In spite of this and other lapses, society, if it is to become self-respecting, must apply individual treatment to delinquent citizens. To hang every murderer, to send every thief to prison for a given term of years, or to jail every drunk—any such mechanical justice is to us now a relic of the age of barbarism. Not merely for the prisoner's sake, but for the sake of the feelings of those citizens who are out of jail and have a responsibility for those who are in, we must have a system of handling delinquents that will decide just what is the better course in any individual case. And if there be failures, they may call for a readjustment of the methods of treatment, but never for an abandonment of the principle.

ULM AND BURKE ARE OFFICERS OF COMMITTEE

for the mailing of maxazines.

In regard to the central committee the resolution stated:

"Resolved, That, inasmuch as the so-called Republican convention held in this city on September 14, voluntarily and irrevocably withdrew from the Republican party for this campaign when it adopted the platform and endorsed the candidate of an entirely separate political organization, that the county central committee appointed by that body cannot in any sense represent or affiliate with the Republican party, and inasmuch as the delegates of each precinct selecting the central committee for this campaign were elected by voters who had no intention of supporting the Republican party, and were consequently not entitled to sit in a convention bearing that designation. These delegates, and the voters who elected them, were members of the National Progressive party; they were supported at the primary election as such, and never had any other intention than that of endorsing a party entirely antagonistic to Republicans. The fact that they could, and did, participate at the primaries, and in the convention, under the designation of Republicans, only exhibits a pitiful and total failure of the primary law to furnish honest elections, and does not in the slightest degree entitle these delegates to any other consideration or political standing than that which their own actions demonstrated, which proved conclusively that they were not Republicans. We, therefore, announce to the voters and citizens generally that the county central committee to be selected by this convention will constitute the only Republican organization in Orange county, and we pledge this committee to conduct itself in a manner that will reflect honesty of purpose and unqualified fealty to the grand old party whose name it is proud to bear."

Then came paragraphs endorsing the proposed good roads bonds of this county, urging action for the improvement of Newport Harbor, recommending a systematic system for the betterment of Orange County Park, declaring opposition to any law being passed whereby the distribution of surface and underground waters of the state are proposed to be placed in the hands of a state commission for distribution to users, congratulating the army and navy veterans that the government has recognized them with a new pension bill.

In conclusion the resolutions state:

In addition to our specials quoted last week, we will sell Friday and Saturday:

Picnic Hams, per lb.12c
Sliced Bacon, per lb.25c
Whole Piece Bacon, per lb.20c
Ham, per lb.20c

Black Tea, guaranteed, per lb. 20c
Good Coffee, guaranteed, per lb. 20c
And many other things too numerous to mention. Come and see.

The Raymond Department Store

Opposite City Hall.

"In conclusion, this convention, representing the true and uncompromising Republicans of Orange county, desires to impress upon all voters of all parties of our commonwealth, and, if possible, those of the state and nation, the grave crisis now confronting them. For the first time in twenty years the Democrats are emboldened to return to the tariffs as a national issue, upon which their last historic victory was won. They now stand, as they stood in 1892, absolutely pledged to a policy of tariff for revenue only. In 1893 it was conclusively demonstrated that a tariff for revenue only was a tariff for soup-houses, industrial paralysis, commercial ruin, and general suffering and want. We do not question the sincerity of those who hold divergent views on the tariff, but we earnestly call attention to the practical difference between the days of tariff for revenue only from 1893 to 1897, and the conditions under a Republican protective policy since that time. The National Progressive party, which makes its initial bid for support in this campaign, presents nothing to the voters bearing upon the practical affairs of the people. Its platform is a heterogeneous collection of theories culled (to use no more expressive term) in most part from parties whose principles have always been distasteful to and in direct conflict with Republican doctrines, and many of which resulted in the total obliteration of the party which originated them a quarter of a century ago. The initiative and referendum would be a sorry substitute to the people of California for the tariff on oranges, lemons, dried fruit and walnuts. The recall would be a dismal recompense for the annihilation of our beet sugar industry. And a period of hard times and financial losses, riots and anarchy, asylums and suicides, will not be cheerfully welcomed in exchange for the wonderful prosperity we now enjoy. The day is rapidly approaching when the people of this nation must decide upon which course they will follow; and we submit to them now, while there is yet time to calmly and intelligently consider the situation, whether the great Republican party which has furnished the present desirable conditions is not fairly entitled to their confidence and support."

Amendment Carried

When the motion was made to adopt the report of the committee, N. A. Ulm moved an amendment declaring that inasmuch as the Republicans have no nominee for state senator or assemblyman, the central committee be empowered to bring out candidates for those positions. This motion carried with three or four noses. The resolutions were then adopted, and a central committee was selected, the delegates of each precinct selecting the central committee for that precinct.

The central committee organized by electing N. A. Ulm chairman and J. C. Burke secretary, and the convention of the Taft Republicans who had gone from the Republican convention held the Saturday previous was over. The wording of Ulm's amendment to the resolutions committee's report was:

"Whereas, The Republicans of Orange county, in their resolutions, recommend to the State Legislature, be it enacted, That we recommend to our County Central Committee the advisability of placing Republican candidates for the Senate and Assembly on the ballot by petition, or to take such other action as may be necessary."

Safety Valve for Vesuvius

An Italian scientist proposed to supply a safety valve for Vesuvius by boring a tunnel in the base of the mountain and letting the lava escape into the sea. His idea is to bore the tunnel while the crater is in a state of coma, and he believes that when the volcano becomes active such a channel would be sufficient to carry away the lava, says Popular Mechanics. His whole proposal, however, is not to let the lava escape altogether, but to run it into molds and make it into blocks for use in the streets and quays of Naples.

REGISTERED FOR CONGRESS

There have already been registered over two thousand delegates to the National Irrigation Congress which convenes for a four-days session at Salt Lake City on September 30. This means that the coming assemblage of this congress is destined to be the most important in its history.

There are several reasons for the broad interest in the subjects which are to be discussed at the several sessions. Prominent among these striking themes will be the discussion between the States of Colorado and Texas as to the respective rights of each of these commonwealths to the waters of the Rio Grande. The two sides of the argument will be championed by some of the most powerful orators from each of the interested states. The Texas battle will be led by Senator Joe Bailey, while Colorado's contingent will have Senator Frank Gouty as its "Warwick." The question will, when finally decided, have a direct bearing upon several parallel situations; therefore, there is a widespread interest in the action of the congress along this line.

Irrigation conditions throughout the west have developed several most important subjects which will have the attention of the congress. Among these is the subject of water measurement which at the present time differs in nearly every western state, then there is the differential between the water laws of the different sections and besides this there is a world of possibility in the various questions of the duty of water. Another subject of grave importance which will be given broad attention is that of irrigation finance and the best means of establishing it on a sound basis. Allied to this comes the question of weak and impractical irrigation schemes and further down the list those schemes which may be termed in no other way than as "wild cat."

All of these questions are scheduled for discussion and there is a certainty that every session of the congress will be full of interest to every irrigator.

Utah has thrown out a broad invitation to this twentieth celebration of the founding of the congress and is preparing a most interesting series of entertainments. These will include a musical program for the opening session and an electric pageant surpassing in size anything ever held in the western country.

Man of His Word

"Central," he said patiently. "You have given me the wrong number seven times now. If you do it again I shall report you. I want Weeltuken 7-50 V."

There was a whirring, a clicking then a clicking whirring.

"Hello," he said, "is this you, Dolly?"

"Yes," answered a sweet voice, put up to it, of course, by its fair owner. "This is Lawrence Seelingbass. I called up to tell you that if you don't marry me I'll go to Africa and be shot by lions."

"I'll marry you, foolish boy. You've never asked me before, you know."

"What! Who is this?"

"Dolly Darlingham."

He hung up the receiver as if he had been shot. Central had given him the wrong connection again. On his way to the jeweler's to buy Dolly Darlingham a diamond solitaire he stopped in at the Beestone telephone office to report the operator, for in all things Lawrence Seelingbass was a man of his word.—Philadelphia Evening Times.

What They Both Lacked

An old farmer went to a cattle show to exhibit a favorite cow, with which he had high hopes of winning the first prize. On learning the result, and that his cow had been placed fifth, his anger knew no bounds, and, rushing into the ring, he attacked the judges. "Why is my cow not first? What are her faults, I'd like to know?" At this point one of the judges approached him and answered: "Her faults, my good man, are somewhat akin to your own. She lacks good breeding."

MILLINERY OPENINGS

Local Hatters Show Up-to-Date
Chapeaux That Reveal in Color and Style

Millinery openings have kept the ladies of Santa Ana interested during the past week, the gorgeous colorings and rich materials of the new autumn chapeaux making these events of artistic interest. Never before has there been such a variety of materials used in millinery, the gamut from cretonne and zephyr wools to silk and velvets being gallantly run. Summer malines, laces and roses mingle gayly with the brocades, felts, beavers and velvets of winter, while the whole bird kingdom must have contributed to the endless variety of feathers that are used in more than generous proportion. Fancy feathers still hold their own to the despair of artistic tastes while magnificent, softly falling plumes in plain or shaded effects make the most unpretentious of shapes beautiful.

The hope of a compromise season in the sizes of hats is held out by the many medium sized chapeaux both in street and dress hats, that are to be seen. To be sure, the large hats are bigger than ever, some of them simply being enormous, while some of the small hats are scarcely more than caps, so closely do they fit the head. But the sensible, comfortable medium-sized hat is now obtainable, a fact that will rejoice many hearts and tastes.

The local openings have been marked by good style in display, and an up-to-dateness that makes the ladies of Santa Ana feel confident that it is wise policy to buy at home. Pretty window displays and decorative interiors have been significant of all the openings.

The first of the fall openings was that of Miss Ruth Taylor followed by the openings of Mesdames Wilhelm and Anderson on Friday and Saturday. Miss O'Donnell, Crookshank-Beatty Company and the Misses Rutherford on Saturday. Miss Schumacher's opening days will be Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Many Former Students of the College Now Prominent in Local Business Circles

Go into almost every store and office of the city and of surrounding cities of Orange county and upon inquiry you will find at least one or more graduates of this school. The banks are filled with our graduates, while several bank tellers and assistant cashiers got their first training for success in Orange County Business College. The city hall, the law offices, and in fact every business interest of the city is served by those who have passed the portals of this institution in years gone by.

"Why Pay Tuition for Something You Can Get for Nothing in the High School?" You May Ask

We will answer the question. Students who attend Orange County Business College find it very much cheaper to secure their training here than in the high school. They have figured it out for themselves that the money paid for tuition in any school, the smallest part of their school expenses, that board and clothes constitute a much larger outlay than tuition and that after all these requisites are considered, yet the one great item of expense in acquiring an education is TIME.

And here is the answer in a nutshell. One year is ample time for us to train the average student thoroughly in both shorthand and bookkeeping. To graduate in the commercial high school and secure a diploma, requires four years. The tuition in our school amounts to $130 for one year (52 weeks), including all books needed for the combined course. The city superintendent's report last year showed an average cost to the tax

Orange County Business College of Santa Ana, California, Has Auspicious Fall Opening

Orange County Business College last week had its twentieth annual fall opening, and every indication now points to the best year in the history of this institution which has done so much for the youth of Orange county and Southern California, as well as for the COMMUNITY in which it has operated during all these years. As a distinct factor in the up-building of the city and county, Orange County Business College stands second to no other institution owned and operated by one man. And it has been a "one man" enterprise from its founding to the present day.

History of the Institution

In 1892, one Robert L. Bisbee launched a little private school in the Richelle Hotel building, Santa Ana, and named it the Orange County Business College. This same proprietor continued to conduct the local, vocational institution until 1900, when he sold it to H. O. Sisson, a school man from Montana, who in turn remained at the helm as sole proprietor until the close of 1908, when the school passed to the hands of its present owner and manager, Prof. J. W. McCormac, who, prior to that time was engaged in business college work in St. Louis, Mo., as manager of the Southwestern Business College of that place, which enrolled nearly a thousand students annually, and which has since passed to the ownership of the Brown chain of schools in Illinois, Indiana and Missouri, and is now their principal school.

Benefits to Santa Ana Are Direct

Since President J. W. McCormac came to the management of the school about four years ago, he has been scattering advertising matter broadcast all over California, Nevada, Arizona and New Mexico. Not only has he advertised in all the leading papers published in these places and in every weekly and daily newspaper of Orange county, but hundreds of thousands of pieces of "direct" advertising matter have been circulated through the mails into the homes of all these localities where children are to be educated, and all this has helped not alone to swell the postal receipts of Santa Ana postoffice, but has been the means of bringing hundreds of persons into the city for the purpose of attending this progressive, man-making, success-building institution. This year there were new instructors have been brought here from the East to assume places in the faculty, and along with these have come three boys in one of the homes, for the high school and grammar grades. Last year a faculty member was secured from outside in the person of L. C. Kline, whose daughter, as a member of the local high school juniors, wrote the best original plot for use in the dramatic department and had it accepted and staged in the high school auditorium before an appreciative audience. Prof. Kline is this year conducting a school of his own in Alhambra. Every year this school brings to Santa Ana many young people who board in the city, shop in the stores, patronize the local institutions and travel on the local street car lines, all of which is a distinct benefit to Santa Ana directly, and a general benefit to Southern California. Take this school away, and the effect would be tearing up boarding house keepers, clothing and furniture stores, newspaper publishers and job printers, and in fact every business enterprise of the city, even the professional callings, for many of these persons patronize physicians, dentists, oculists and other professional men. And who can estimate the number of enrollments in public schools of the city from year to year from the families attracted here for the sole purpose of placing one or more members of the household in the local business college, where they can be made self-supporting and independent, and able even to help maintain others who are dependent upon them for support, in whole or in part. Here many a helpless mother with children made orphans in their tender years acquires ability to rear and educate them; many a man who has passed the age for public school, finds such training as fits him for the exacting demands of the business activities of the day, and many scores of grammar school graduates who are financially embarrassed have got the inclination to spend four long years in high school, and supplement that training with a university course to fit themselves for bread-winning, annually enroll in Orange County Business College for a few months and go out to remunerative employment and success. Many high school graduates also choose this school instead of the university in which to complete their education.

RESULT OF ALPHABET ADVERTISING CONTEST OF MISPELLED WORDS

Last week we announced that thereafter the awards in the alphabet ad contest would be made differently so as to give subscribers in all parts of the county an equal chance with those living in Santa Ana. All correct answers received up to noon today were placed in a hat and shaken up and the first two numbers drawn were given the awards.

The misspelled words in Friday's ads were "manufacture," in Wingood's drug store ad, and "framing," in Mitchell & Browne's ad.

The first coupon drawn was that of Ida Boyd Joplin, 625 Riverline avenue, who will be given choice of the awards.

The second award goes to James T. Kelly, 528 East Walnut street.

There were a total of thirty-eight correct answers sent in and a number of others that were not correct. The word "specialties," in Wilson's restaurant ad, and "specialty," in H. H. Reuter's ad, were each given as misspelled in two or three of the answers. Gramofones and victrolas were also turned in as misspelled.

FUNERAL SERVICE TODAY FOR HENRY C. CARTMELL

An impressive funeral service for Henry C. Cartmell, who died Thursday, September 19, 1912, at El Paso, Texas, of pneumonia, was conducted today at 10 o'clock in Smith's chapel.

Rev. E. Chase of Boston read the Episcopal funeral service in the presence of a large number of friends who had gathered with sympathy for the sorrowing family and with respect for the young life called home. Mrs. Ella I. Fyfe, accompanied on the organ by Mrs. O. K. Forgy, sweetly sang "God Shall Wipe Away All Tears," and "Rock of Ages." The casket was surrounded by a profusion of flowers comprising dainty bouquets and handsome floral pieces sent as last sweet tributes to the memory of the departed.

The pallbearers were J. D. Thomas, L. Sheats, Sherman Stevens, A. C. Black, V. Tubbs, Dr. A. R. Hervey and Will Wall.

The Cartmell family is a widely known one in Santa Ana and vicinity, having lived for many years in Tustin, where their ranch home was, before removing to Santa Ana.

Henry Cartmell was born in Union County, Kentucky, and came to Tustin a young man ready for college. He entered the Baptist College in Los Angeles where he was graduated a pharmacist.

The body was placed in the family plot in Santa Ana Cemetery.

Nathan Cartmell, a brother, and Mrs. Poshyshell, a cousin, came down from Los Angeles today to attend the funeral with Mrs. Llewellyn Cartmell, the mother, and the sister, Miss Helen Van Cartmell.

Rev. H. E. Murkett Announces

Next Sunday as Likely to be

His Last as Pastor Here

Rev. H. E. Murkett announced yesterday morning at the First Methodist church that next Sunday will in all probability be his last as pastor of this church. His announcement was received with regret by not only the people of his church, but by all of Santa Ana. Rev. Mr. Murkett has been of the most public spirited and fearless of citizens, as well as a successful pastor. Under his administration the church has grown wonderfully in all departments. The recent enlargement of the church building has been accomplished under his guidance, he having devoted himself unceasingly to the important work.

Mrs. Murkett is an able aid to her husband in his pastoral and social labors, being a highly cultured woman of deep spiritual nature. Their leaving here should it take place, will be a loss to both the church and community. Mr. Murkett does not know just where he will be sent until after conference, which is near at hand.

"You are certainly to be congratulated for the splendid interest you have created in penmanship, as well as for the splendid work you are doing, not only in penmanship but in other things as well.

DESCRIBES PROPOSED NEW POLYTECHNIC HIGH SCHOOL

The front page of the development section of the Los Angeles Times yesterday morning contained a four-column cut showing two of the drawings for the new polytechnic high school and a picture of School Superintendent Cranston. The Times article follows:

As a result of the greatest architectural competition under the rules of the American Institute of Architects ever held in Southern California, Withey & Davis of this city have been commissioned to prepare plans for the magnificent new polytechnic high school that is to be built by the progressive citizens of Santa Ana. The competition, governed as it was by regulations of the highest professional order, attracted some of the leading designers of the Southwest, a total of thirteen sets of plans being submitted to the Santa Ana Board of Education. These, it is stated by members of the board, were all of a high order of merit.

In the award John C. Austin of this city acted as architectural adviser to the educational body. In addition to the commission to draw plans for the school group, two prizes, one of $100 and one of $50, were awarded. These went to Allison & Allison, and Edgar H. Cline, respectively. Practically all of the competitors were Los Angeles architects.

The accepted plans of Withey & Davis call for a group of four buildings, a main, or academic building, a science, household and fine arts building, a manual arts and commerce building, and a cafeteria. These structures are to be erected on the new twenty-acre campus of the school at Walnut and Parton streets.

A total of $1,000,000 is available from a recent bond issue for the structures in question, and it is expected that approximately $500,000 will be expended in equipment and in the laying out of the grounds. With the site, the splendid group projected will represent an investment of about $250,000.

The buildings will follow Grecian Ionic lines, the motif being taken from the Erechtheum, one of the stately structures of the Athenian Acropolis. The academic building, fronting Walnut street, will be particularly imposing, one of its salient features being a portico supported by stone columns two stories in height. The ends of the flanking buildings will be set to the street, the three principal structures enclosing a quadrangle or lawn. The building will be two stories in height with the exception of the cafeteria, which will contain a single story and which will be placed at the rear of the academic structure.

Working plans for the group are to be rushed to completion, as it is the intention to hold the commencement of next June in the academic building. The other buildings are to be ready for occupancy by the opening of the fall term of 1913.

Quarters Outgrown

"The present high school facilities have been entirely outgrown, owing to the rapid advance in population of Santa Ana and the constant increase in registration of the school itself," said Prof. J. A. Cranston, superintendent of the Santa Ana schools, yesterday afternoon. "We now have a high school enrollment of close to 600, which is a gain of about 100 in the past year alone. The growth of the commercial high school work has been wonderful. With the increase in attendance there has also come the necessity for emphasizing vocational education, something impossible in the present crowded high school."

The present high school consists of two buildings, one for regular high school work and one for the commercial work, situated at the corner of Ninth and Main streets. Upon the completion of the new Polytechnic group the present structures will be

METHODISTS WILL CO-OPERATE IN WAR ON RACE TRACK BETS

PACIFIC GROVE, Cal., Sept. 23.—The California Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in annual session here recently, pledged co-operation to the opponents of the proposed law prohibiting race track gambling, to be voted on in November. The act was condemned on account of its exception clauses.

A committee was appointed to recommend membership to a permanent committee to supervise plans for a religious exhibit at the Panama Pacific Exposition.

Dr. Batchelor, fraternal delegate of the Pacific Coast Methodist Church, South, predicted that eventually the Methodist church in America would be united.

"I will hail with joy the unification of American Methodism," he said. "I believe that in the providence of God it will come."

Bishop Shepard responded, declaring that the conference reciprocated Dr. Batchelor's feelings.

POSTMASTER AS WITNESS

Hot Springs Official Said to Have Important Evidence in the Rosenthal Case

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Sept. 23.—Postmaster Fred Johnson today was summoned to testify in the hearings of depositions here in the case against Police Lieutenant Becker of New York, charged with the murder of Gambler Rosenthal. Attorneys representing Becker are trying to prevent Johnson from testifying. It is said that "Paymaster" Schepps admitted to the postmaster that he could send Becker to the electric chair.

GETS READY TO HANDLE CROP

Santa Ana Walnut Association is Changing Its Grader—Prospects Are Bright

The packing house of the Santa Ana Walnut Growers Association is now getting ready for the coming crop. The grader is being changed to be in conformity with those used by the other walnut associations. The central organization has established a uniform standard of grading for all associations. This will be of advantage in offering the goods in the eastern markets. The walnuts this year promise to be of good quality since the weather has been quite favorable for their development, and they have not suffered from sunburn as has happened in some other years. For this reason they promise to shell out clean and make easy work for the pickers in hulling and culling. Walnut growers have good reason to expect a good year.

STATIONARY AEROPLANE

New Jersey Man Claims Invention of a Revolutionizing Ship of the Air

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 23.—Philip Ackers, an employee of the Strauss Worsteds Mills of this city, has just completed constructing an aeroplane which he claims will remain perfectly stationary in the air and will revolutionize the present methods of aerial navigation. He has had his invention patented.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT

SHOT HIMSELF THROUGH LEG

Mexican Who Tried to Commit Suicide Received Only a Slight Flesh Wound

Deputy Sheriff Squires and Law went to Talbert last night and brought in a Mexican who shot himself in the leg while trying to commit suicide. The Mexican, Cinicero Reyes by name, beat his wife, and she went to a neighbor's place. Reyes then became despondent and tried to kill himself with a 32-caliber rifle. A brother seized the rifle, and in the struggle it was discharged and the bullet passed through one of Reyes' calves. Reyes was trying to find his wife when the officers arrived.

Charge of Theft

Lino Reyes has sworn to a complaint charging Leoncio Jimenez with stealing a revolver and razor.

Swears to Complaint

Walter Kinslow today swore to a complaint charging Harry and Frank Mix with battery.

Set For October 17

Sam Garcia and G. Jacobo, both of Anaheim, charged with stealing a team belonging to Jacob Yaeger, are to have their hearing on October 17. Jacobo was with Garcia, but did not know the horses were stolen. That is the way the officers have the situation sized up, and Jacobo was allowed to go on his own recognizance. Garcia is held in jail.

Mission Weddings

Within two minutes after the cab stopped at the mission door the report spread up and down the street that a wedding was taking place inside. Within another two minutes the room was packed to the very doors. That sudden rush of the crowd to the sanctuary pleased the mission superintendent.

"If I had money to spare," he said, "I would pay a bonus to young couples for getting married in the mission. The moral effect of one wedding is worth a dozen sermons. To get the best effect the ceremony ought to be performed in the middle of the service. No innovation that I have ever introduced has had such a sobering effect on the congregation. The example of a man once as far down maybe in the social scale as themselves having become sufficiently regenerated to assume the responsibilities of life stirs every bit of manhood there is in them. The trouble is, I can persuade very few couples to be married in a mission. The bridegrooms do not mind, but the brides want something more exclusive."

Getting There First

Ladd—There's your old friend De Broke coming across the street.
Dadd—Eh! That's right. Oh yes, he sees me. I'll run ahead and meet him. I want to borrow a dollar. Back in a moment.

He hurries forward and greets the coming man. Presently he returns.
Ladd—Why should you ask De Broke for a dollar?

Dadd—Because I knew he was going to ask me for ten.

Inducement

"Did dat man offer any inducements to git you to buy dat mule?" "Yassindeed," replied Mr. Erastus Pinkley. "He gave me his membership in a 'sociation dat provides a handsome funeral for anybody dat belongs to it."

There will be more than 700 delegates. From foreign countries acceptances have been received from 416 delegates, representing forty nations. AVIATOR CARRIED MAIL

Bucking Stiff Wind Charles Wald Flew With 50 Pounds of Mail Over L. I. Sound

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—Charles Wald, an aviator of the Wright school, bucked a stiff wind yesterday afternoon in a trip from the New Rochelle Yacht Club to the Glenwood Country Club at Glen Head, Long Island, across the sound.

Wald inaugurated his air trip Saturday when he flew from Glen Head to New Rochelle, carrying about fifty pounds of mail, and yesterday he made the return journey.

WOMEN OPEN SHOPS TO FORWARD CAUSE

Political Shops in Chicago For Sale of Progressive Party Paraphernalia

CHICAGO, Sept. 23.—"Political shops" are the latest word in the campaign for finances which the women of the Progressive party are waging.

Started in the suburb of Winnetka, carried into this city and recommended generally, the establishment of these shops all over the middle and western states is to be encouraged by the finance committee.

Mrs. Kellogg Fairbank, chairman of the committee and director of all the women's money-raising operations throughout this territory, is sending out letters by thousands, urging the chairmen in all the counties to start these shops for circulating campaign material and obtaining funds.

In the shops are sold certificates of membership in the Progressive party, stamps, pins and other party emblems. The certificates bring any price from $1 to $1000. No one is allowed to pay a larger sum than the last named, for the committee believes in going after the small amounts, and more checks for $1 come into the office than for any other amount.

Both women and men are buying the certificates and are having their names entered on a permanent list, to be recorded with the Chicago Historical society. A number of women have purchased certificates for their children, and others have bought them for their servants.

Try It

It is said the queen of Sheba tested King Solomon's wisdom by bringing before him an equal number of boys and girls, dressed exactly alike, and asking him to decide which was which.

The father of wisdom called for wash basins, and told the group to wash his hands.
The girls daintily rolled up their cuffs, but the boys splashed away without regard to neatness.

There was no match trust in that early day. If there had been any the great king would have enjoyed a simpler test. For the London Chronicle declares that when women strike a match she invariably scrapes it outward and away from herself, while a man scrapes it in and toward himself. Fill your match box and try this.

Belief in "Lucky Stones"

Amulets and charms are still widely believed in, judging from the letters of recommendation in circulars sent through the mails by a Boston jeweler who sells "lucky stones." "The very day I received the lucky stone," says one of the gullible ones, "I met a man who had owed me several dollars for years, and he paid me all that was coming to me." Rheumatism and other bodily ills as well as bad debts are, so the letters say, cured by the lucky stone. There are unlucky stones, too, it seems. The famous Hope diamond, which was bought by a gem-loving American, has a reputation for bringing misfortune to its owner. As its most recent buyer, however, gave $180,000 for it (a record price for a diamond in America), while a few years ago it sold for $80,000, the Hope diamond appears to be living down its bad reputation and living up to the significance of its name.

ATTORNEY TO MAKE CLAIMS

Some of Those Injured at the Circus Put Cases in Hands of R. Y. Williams

Letters were received today by Mrs. G. H. Dobson, Mr. Cox and others who were injured in the fall of a section at the Barnum & Bailey circus Friday night stating that an adjustment of claims for damage would be made by letter. When the circus left here on Friday it was with the statement that an adjuster would be here today. However, no one has appeared, and instead some of the claimants have letters advising them to write to the circus people at El Paso.

Some of those who were hurt or suffered loss of valuables or injury to clothing in the mix-up or who were personally injured have employed Attorney R. Y. Williams to look after their claims for them.

No Satiety in Knowledge

We see in all other pleasures there is satiety, and after they be used their verdure departeth . . . But of knowledge there is no satiety; satisfaction and appetite are perpetually interchangeable and therefore it appeareth to be good in itself simply without faccacy or accident.—Francis Bacon.

Looking at the Present

"Johnny," said a mother to her greedy little five-year-old, "if you eat so much lunch you will spoil your appetite for dinner."

"Well, I don't care," answered Johnny. "I'd rather have a good lunch for my appetite than a good appetite for my dinner."

Eleven new members of a colored secret society in Alexandria, Va., were undergoing initiation when the door gave way, and they all fell into the cellar. They believed that it was part of the initiation ceremony.
